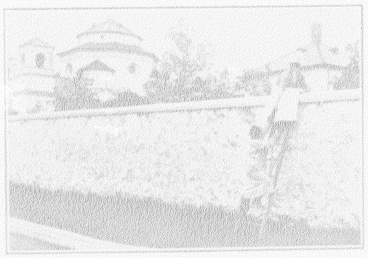
THE WAY THEY FOOLED DAD

LENGTH 850 FEET COPYRIGHT 1908

Mr. Newlyrich wants his daughter to marry a nobleman. He introduces a smart Englishman who however finds little favor in the eyes of his beautiful daughter as she is secretly in love with Jack. While the father is talking matters over with the nobleman Jack appears on the scene. The father surprises the lovers.



Enraged, he shows Jack the door and to make his daughter more willing to accede to his wishes he brings her to a Ladies Seminary. Love, however, finds a way. Jack discovers the hiding place, he elopes with the girl he loves and before the father in a pursuing automobile is able to reach the elopers "the true lovers' knot" has been tied by the hands of a Priest. The father forgives and a happy reunion follows.

No. 112

S. LUBIN

LARGEST MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES,

FILMS, SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONS,

LUBIN BUILDING, 926-928 MARKET STREET,

PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.